Mr. Robert Yap
Reports Analyst, Reports Analysis Division
Federal Election Commission
Washington, DC 20463

Dear Robert:

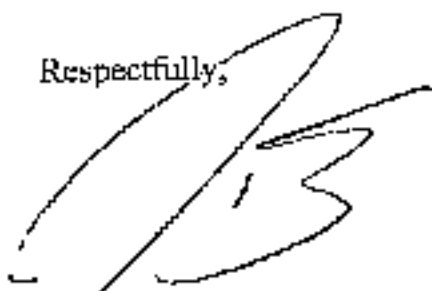

First of all let me apologize for the delay in rectifying the discrepancies disclosed in your enclosed letters.

Enclosed please find amended reports for the periods covering 10/17/96-11/25/96 and 11/26/96-12/31/96. I believe all of the noted citations have been completely rectified.

In your letter dated February 11, 1997 you raised a concern dealing with the receipts of J.R. Ramsburg and the possibility that his receipts were in excess of the $1000 per cycle contribution limits. Mr. Ramsburg contributed $100 on 3/6/96, $50 on 4/4/96 and $1000 on 11/19/96. Thus for the General Election of 1996 Mr. Ramsburg contributed only $150. For the Primary Election of 1998 Mr. Ramsburg has contributed $1000. Your concern, however, dealt with his aggregate 1996 total of $1150. As I'm sure you are aware, it is very possible to have a calendar year aggregate total in excess of $1000 and not be in violation of FEC code. This is due to the fact that contributions from three election cycles are included in an election calendar year.

If you have any other questions or concerns please feel free to contact me directly at 301-371-8564.

Respectfully,

Joseph R. Bartlett
